Brush up on your English and Maths

You might be tired of hearing about English and maths qualifications, but here's the truth: they really do make a difference. Having GCSEs or Level 2 Functional Skills can open doors to better jobs and higher pay. In Plymouth, there are plenty of training providers ready to help. You can study English and maths as part of a full-time course, alongside an apprenticeship or traineeship, or as a standalone option if you're 19+.

Other ways to learn:

- Anyone aged 16+ can complete qualifications online from home (please note: there is a cost attached).
- Many employability courses include English and maths, so you can work towards them while building other skills.

Benefits of improving your English and maths:

- more job opportunities
- better chances of promotion
- increased confidence in work and life
- higher earning potential.

Ready to boost your skills? Ask us how to get started today!

Get into training or education

It's never too late to learn new skills. Plymouth has lots of providers offering education - and the courses are quite often free. Courses range from business and coding to hair and beauty, animal care, sport and fitness, military preparation, cooking and more. Many can even help you to access university-level study.

Green Ecotherapy Group Sessions

If you consider yourself to be living with mild to moderate emotional and mental wellbeing issues, why not try some nature-based therapy?

Poole Farm is working in partnership with Livewell Southwest to offer young people up to the age of 18 (or 25 if living with SEND) six sessions over six weeks where you will immerse yourself in nature, meet new people and learn techniques such as grounding, mindfulness and nature connectedness.

When: Mondays 10am to 12noon or Tuesdays 2pm to 4pm and 5.30pm to 7.30pm

Where: Poole Farm

Kooth

Kooth is a free digital mental health and wellbeing service that is available for free to people living in Plymouth, designed to help anyone aged 11-19 manage their own emotional health and wellbeing through anonymous and confidential support.

This safe online space helps people to access therapeutic activities, with a peer support community, self-help articles and forums and discussion boards moderated by qualified practitioners. Users can also keep an online journal and keep track of their wellbeing via an interactive goal tracker. This will be accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week. There is also a one-on-one live text chat and messaging counselling service with a team of qualified practitioners. See for yourself, here

Devon Mind
