

April opportunities for adults 25+ in Plymouth!

Plymouth is a city of opportunity. Whether you are at a crossroads because you are facing redundancy, or transitioning from HM Armed Forces, you're thinking about returning to work after some time away, or even if you are considering training and education options and looking to gain experience to find your dream job or career, our goal is to help you access the local support on offer.

Below are some of the latest opportunities – including some great events that you can attend for free! If anything catches your eye, simply get in touch by emailing skillslaunchpad@plymouth.gov.uk.

You can also help yourself to localised information, advice and guidance through our Adult Hub Resource Bank here: www.skillslaunchpadplym.co.uk/adult-hub-resource-bank which includes specific support for Plymouth's veterans and the military community, those facing redundancy, career changers and adults aged 50+.

Upskill through training or education

It's never too late to learn new skills. Whether your motivation is to get a job or start a hobby, Plymouth has several providers offering adult education - and the courses are quite often free.

Courses range from business and coding to hair and beauty, animal care, sport and fitness, cooking, and some can even help you to access university-level study.

Training delivered in person

To get started take a look at short courses with Achievement Training, City College Plymouth, On Course South West, WEA, Skilltec Training and South Devon College, as these are just a few of the providers delivering courses face-to-face throughout the year.

Shekinah can also help with short courses around wellbeing including opportunities to work through anger and stress issues, and employability related skills such as English, maths and using computers, as well as mentoring and carpentry. Find out more about their Learning Exchange Programmes, here.

Skills Bootcamps are intensive nine-week skills accelerator courses, which will enable adults to build up specific sector skills and fast track to an interview with a local employer. They are currently delivered locally by City College Plymouth, On Course South West, BIT Training and Building Growth South West. Or if you are looking to engage online, The Skills Network offers opportunities.

Skills Bootcamps cover specialisms including cyber security, project management, digital marketing, early years education, welding, green skills and retrofit and more.

Apply for jobs

There are many reasons why you might be looking for a new job, but the great news is that there are thousands of jobs available, right now, in Plymouth.

For advice on where to apply and things to consider, click here.

Explore self-employment

Have you always dreamt of starting your own business? It can be both an exciting adventure and daunting, especially if you have additional barriers to overcome, such as disability or being long-term unemployed.

We have added lots of information and links to support you in setting up your own business in our Resource Bank here and we also suggest checking out the upcoming courses with the National Careers Service, On Course South West, the King's Trust and City College Plymouth that can help you with starting your own business.

Apply for apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are real jobs with training. They start all year round and are not just for school leavers! You learn, gain a nationally recognised qualification, and study from Level 2 right up to degree-level, depending on the role you are working towards.

If you are worried about the financial side of an Apprenticeship salary, you could be entitled to claim universal credit to top you up, so don't rule it out as an option.

In the latest edition of Plymouth's exclusive apprenticeship bulletin, there are hundreds of apprenticeship vacancies. Find out more here

Access mental health support or boost your confidence

You could also join a monthly support group. Take a look here at the different groups you can attend or click here for wellbeing activities.

Shekinah

The team at Shekinah can help with short courses around personal development, handling stress and anger, mentoring and coaching, mental health, sexual health, as well as more employability related skills such as English, maths and using computers. For a safe and friendly place to find out about jobs, courses, and benefits you can drop in and see the team at Stonehouse Creek, PL1 3SF every Friday, 12.30-3.30pm

Gifted Women

Women across the UK can be caught up in a cycle of addiction, homelessness, and crime, with a lack of opportunities and often a complex history of trauma and abuse at the foundation. Even when working hard to break the cycle, women can struggle to find work and support to reach their full potential.

Gifted Women works to help women break this cycle, recognising meaningful employment, training, and further education as key factors in lasting change.

Through weekly group work sessions, learn about all aspects of employability, from recruitment to resilience in the workplace and everything in between. With a significant focus on life skills, confidence building, exploring passions and ambitions and discovering the value you have to offer. Get in touch to find out more about this programme.

Art, Craft and Laughter

Life can sometimes be overwhelming and having a space to be able to go, take timeout and breathe might just be what you need.

Art, craft, and laughter are offering mental health, wellbeing art and craft groups.

Search 'Art, craft and laughter' on Facebook or Instagram.
