Upcoming events

Building Plymouth and Gwella Contracting – Tuesday 14 July

Construction is about more than what you see on the surface — it relies on specialist work behind the scenes to make buildings safe, compliant, and ready for use. At Building Plymouth's upcoming jobs and training drop-in, Gwella Contracting will be showcasing their vital role in the industry.

This event gives local residents the chance to meet employers face-to-face, ask questions, and explore career opportunities within construction and related sectors. It's particularly useful for anyone interested in behind-the-scenes roles such as asbestos removal, environmental services, and site preparation.

Gwella Contracting will share insight into the day-to-day reality of these roles, from preparing sites for refurbishment or demolition to carrying out safety-critical work. Their team will also be on hand to explain how to get started, including training, qualifications, and progression opportunities.

When: Tuesday 14 July

Time: 10am to 1pm

Where: First Floor, Cobourg House, Mayflower Street, PL1 1QX

No need to book, just drop-in

Apply for jobs

There are many reasons why you might be looking for a new job, but the great news is that there are thousands of jobs available, right now, in Plymouth.

For advice on where to apply and things to consider, click here.

Explore self-employment

Have you always dreamt of starting your own business? It can be both an exciting adventure and daunting, especially if you have additional barriers to overcome, such as disability or being long-term unemployed.

We have added lots of information and links to support you in setting up your own business in our Resource Bank here and we also suggest checking out the upcoming courses with the National Careers Service, On Course South West, the King's Trust and City College Plymouth that can help you with starting your own business.

Apply for apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are real jobs with training. They start all year round and are not just for school leavers! You learn, gain a nationally recognised qualification, and study from Level 2 right up to degree-level, depending on the role you are working towards.

If you are worried about the financial side of an Apprenticeship salary, you could be entitled to claim universal credit to top you up, so don't rule it out as an option.

In the latest edition of Plymouth's exclusive apprenticeship bulletin, there are hundreds of apprenticeship vacancies. Find out more here

Access mental health support or boost your confidence

Gifted Women

Women across the UK can be caught up in a cycle of addiction, homelessness, and crime, with a lack of opportunities and often a complex history of trauma and abuse at the foundation. Even when working hard to break the cycle, women can struggle to find work and support to reach their full potential.

Gifted Women works to help women break this cycle, recognising meaningful employment, training, and further education as key factors in lasting change.

Through weekly group work sessions, learn about all aspects of employability, from recruitment to resilience in the workplace and everything in between. With a significant focus on life skills, confidence building, exploring passions and ambitions and discovering the value you have to offer. Get in touch to find out more about this programme.

Art, Craft and Laughter

Life can sometimes be overwhelming and having a space to be able to go, take timeout and breathe might just be what you need.

Art, craft, and laughter are offering mental health, wellbeing art and craft groups.

Search 'Art, craft and laughter' on Facebook or Instagram.

For more information on accessing mental health support in Plymouth, click here.

Theatre Royal, Our Space

This programme works with adults with lived experience of homelessness, mental health issues, substance misuse, reoffending, or those who feel socially isolated to provide free, regular and meaningful activity that contributes to recovery and rehabilitation.

With taster sessions, community residencies, prison and probation focused groups, and a specific armed forces Our Space offering creative opportunities and weekly workshops for service personnel, veterans and long-term wounded, injured and sick individuals, this is a great programme for individuals looking to build connections.
